3. Data Protection Principles

We will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- Relevant to the purpose we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- Kept securely.

It will not be kept on cloud or Dropbox or any other online storage system.

4. Particulars of processing

- 4.1 We process personal data about members and competitors to our events.

5 Your rights as a Data Subject

5.1 The General Data Protection Regulation provides the following rights (subject to some exemptions)

- 5.1.1 The right to request access to personal data that we hold about you;
- 5.1.2 The right to request rectification of the personal data that we hold about you;
- 5.1.3 The right to request erasure of the personal data we hold about you;
- 5.1.4 The right to request restriction of the processing about you;
- 5.1.5 The right to object to processing; and
- 5.1.6 The right to data portability.

If you wish to raise a complaint on how we handled your personal data, you can contact the Membership Secretary at the details above.

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are processing your personal data not in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information

Commissioners Office (ICO) full contact details for which can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>

6 How we will use information about you

6.1 We will generally process your personal data for contractual necessity in providing membership services and events. We may also use personal information for additional relevant and related purposes where you might reasonably expect us to do so, where the benefits for doing so are not outweighed by your own personal interests or fundamental right or freedoms. This may include:

6.1.1 To maintain our records and other administrative purposes, including updating your details and preferences

6.1.2 To assist with queries, complaints and dispute resolution.

6.1.3 For communications related to membership.

6.1.4 To assist with upholding our club constitution and taking action in cases where there may be a breach of the Society rules of Codes of Ethics.

6.2 We do not use personal data for any marketing purposes.

6.3 You have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority. In the United Kingdom, the supervisory authority is the ICO.

7. Recipients of Data

7.1 We may use service providers to help us provide you with our services. Personal data may be transferred to such service providers who act for and on our behalf, for further processing in accordance with the purpose(s) for which data was originally collected or may otherwise be lawfully processed.

7.2 Such third parties have contracted with us as data processors under the requirements in GDPR. They are contractually bound to only use personal data for the agreed purpose(s). Relevant persons working for these third parties will have access to your personal data under the terms of the data processor contract, but only to the extent necessary to perform their services for us.

7.3 The data processors agree to implement reasonable contractual and technical protections, to keep your data confidential, not sell your personal data to third parties, and to not disclose your personal data to third parties except as required by law, as permitted by us or as stated in this Privacy Notice.

7.4 In appropriate circumstances we may disclose to authorised bodies as required by law.

8. Contact Details

8.1 Please contact the Membership Secretary above if you have any questions or concerns about personal data or privacy matters.
